Rule 1 - General Rules

Summary of this Rule 1:

Rule 1 deals with definitions of terms used in the Rule book, and outlines the powers and authority of the Directors of EEX Asia. Directors have the power to suspend or exclude Members from trading on the market if the Rules are breached or a Member is in proven default. 1.1 INTRODUCTION TO THESE RULES

1.1.1 These Rules shall be binding on all Members in respect of their participation in and use of the Exchange. All Members shall observe the Rules at all times which shall be interpreted and given effect in the manner most conducive to:-

- a. the recognition of the Exchange as a Recognized Market Operator under Section 8(2) of the SFA and the good reputation of the Exchange (and its Members); in particular with references to EEX Asia being an organized and regulated market place for OTC commodity derivatives which are currently and have been previously unregulated, and therefore the Exchange's requirements to enforce the provisions of this Rule book in priority over "common practices" in the unregulated OTC commodity derivatives markets.
- b. the promotion and maintenance of an orderly market, free of undesirable situations or practices; in particular with reference to Rule 2 (Membership) and the provisions applicable to Broking Members and Rule 7 (Trading Rules) and Rule 7A (Additional Requirements for Conduct of Business) and to part (a) of this Rule 1.1.1.
- c. high standards of integrity and fair dealing at all times by all Members when transacting on or via the Exchange with particular reference to Rule 7 and 7A of these Rules.
- d. the proper protection for all persons and/or entities interested in the performance of transactions entered into the Exchange, with particular reference to Rule 7 and Rule 7A.

Each of these Rules shall, unless the context otherwise requires, be construed as an independent provision and shall be in addition and without prejudice to any other provision of the Rules.

1.1.2 Where any provision permits the Directors (or a committee appointed for the purpose) to make further directions in relation to the operation of a Rule then the Directors or such committee may in accordance with such provision make such direction or authorize such arrangement in relation to the whole or any part of the Rule. The Directors or such committee also may make or authorize different directions, arrangements or procedures in relation to different categories of Members, between Members and traders and others and may make or authorize such directions, arrangements or procedures generally in all cases subject to such conditions as they may think fit. The Exchange will not waive a particular Rule and/or Rules for all Members. If there is any particular waiver for a Member or a situation, the Exchange will publish the details of such and notify all Members.

1.1.3 Where any provision provides that an action may be taken by the Directors any action taken shall be without prejudice to the right of the Directors themselves to exercise such powers and take such in accordance with such provision as they may think fit.

1.1.4 Where there is no express provision made in the Rules the Directors (or any committee with appropriate powers) may from time to time implement such procedures as they think fit in relation to any aspect of the management of the Exchange and the conduct of business on the Exchange.

1.1.5 The Directors, the Compliance Committee and/or the Compliance Officer may waive or vary particular minor technical requirements of these Rules in such circumstances as the Exchange thinks fit provided that the Directors, the Compliance Committee and/or the Compliance Officer are satisfied that compliance with the such requirements would be unduly burdensome to the Member or person concerned or that compliance with such requirements would not be in the interests of the Exchange, and that waiver or variation of such requirements does not disadvantage other Members or create unacceptable risks for the Exchange. Waivers or variations of minor technical requirements may be publicized at the discretion of the Exchange.

- 1.1.6 The Rules shall, unless the context otherwise requires, be construed in such a way as to impose responsibility on Members for all acts, omissions, conduct or behaviour of the Member's Representatives in accordance with Rule 1 (General Rules).

1.2 RELATIONS WITH OTHER REGULATORY AUTHORITIES

- b. The Directors may at any time make additional rules, or amend or revoke the rules or part of them, to the extent they consider necessary or desirable for the continued recognition of the Exchange as a Recognized Market Operator under the SFA. Any rule so made, and any such amendment or revocation, shall be subject to MAS confirming in writing that they have no objection to the proposed amendments and announced by circular to Members and shall take effect at such time and in such manner as the Directors may determine.
- c. In a case considered by the Chairman to be one of urgency, the Directors' powers and authority under this Rule may be exercised by a committee consisting of the Chairman and the Chief Executive provided that such committee shall report the circumstances, and particulars of the Rules so made, amended or revoked, as soon as possible to the Directors.

1.3 CONFIDENTIALITY

- 1.3.1 Save as the Rules otherwise provide and/or as may be required by law, rules or directions from the authorities or government bodies or agencies, the Exchange shall keep confidential all information concerning a Member's affairs (including information concerning its clients and Responsible Individuals) acquired by it in the course of its operations or investigations unless the Member (or client or Responsible Individual, as the case may be) agrees otherwise, or the information is or becomes published or generally known otherwise than through a breach by the Exchange of the provision of this Rule.

- 1.3.2 The Exchange shall take reasonable steps to require its officers, employees and agents (including persons appointed to assist or advise the Exchange in investigations or other of its operations) to comply with the Rules. Rule 8 – Dispute Resolution

Summary of this Rule 8:

Rule 8 outlines the procedures for handling disputes between Members and the Exchange. It specifies that disputes shall be attempted to be resolved in good faith, and if this fails, shall be referred to arbitration in Singapore. For disputes between Members, Clearing Members of the Relevant Clearing Houses and the Clearing Houses themselves, all dispute resolution shall occur away from the Exchange and without the involvement of the Exchange other than in an advisory role. The Rule stipulates each party's duty to participate in dispute resolution and which procedures are set as guidelines in case of disputes. This Rule also deals with the role of the Relevant Clearing House in relation to Contracts and the Exchange.

8.1 DISPUTE RESOLUTION

Duty to resolve disputes in good faith.

In the event of any dispute arising between EEX Asia (and/or its owners) and any Member out of or in connection with these Rules, including any dispute as to the existence, validity or termination of Contracts, the parties to the dispute will use their best efforts to resolve such dispute in good faith and in a spirit of mutual understanding and co-operation so as to avoid adverse consequences for the Members and for the operation of the Markets. The parties may agree to handle the dispute in accordance with the complaint procedures established by EEX Asia as amended from time to time.

8.2 Arbitration

- 8.2.1 If the parties to a dispute under Rule 8 have not settled the dispute within 14 days after the first written complaint, or such further period as the parties shall agree in writing, the dispute shall then be referred to and finally resolved by arbitration under the rules of the Singapore International Arbitration Centre which rules are deemed to be incorporated by reference into this Rule.
- 8.2.2 Any arbitration commenced pursuant to this Rule shall be administered by the Singapore International Arbitration Centre.
- 8.2.3 The language to be used in the arbitration proceedings shall be English.

8.3 ROLE OF THE RELEVANT CLEARING HOUSE

- a. In any such dispute to which the Relevant Clearing House is a party, the Relevant Clearing House shall be entitled to call upon a Clearing Member of the Relevant Clearing House who is a buyer, and a Clearing Member of the Relevant Clearing House who is a seller, under the terms of Contracts which have been matched by the Relevant Clearing House and in respect of which reference to arbitration has under these Arbitration Rules been made, to conduct the arbitration between them under these Rules in accordance with the following procedures.
- b. In the event that the Relevant Clearing House elects to call upon a seller and a buyer to arbitrate between them pursuant to these Rules, the following procedures shall apply:-
- i. the Relevant Clearing House shall give notice in writing of such election to the buyer, the seller and the Compliance Officer of the Exchange;
 - ii. the seller and the buyer shall, at their own expense, each have the conduct of the Relevant Clearing House's case against the other subject to the provisions of this Rule;
 - iii. copies of all pleadings, correspondence and documents shall be given to the Relevant Clearing House and the Relevant Clearing House shall be entitled to submit any additional arguments to a board of arbitration in support of its own case, in which case it shall supply copies of such submissions to the seller and the buyer;

- c. If the Relevant Clearing House is found liable to one party in respect of a breach of a Contract and the other party is also found liable to the Relevant Clearing House in respect of the same breach of a Contract which has been matched by the Relevant Clearing House as mentioned in paragraph (a) above, then the liability of the Relevant Clearing House shall be deemed to be a foreseeable consequence of that breach and the Relevant Clearing House shall be entitled to be indemnified by the other party in respect of such liability.
- d. The Relevant Clearing House shall be bound by an arbitration award made against it in pursuance of arbitration, whether it participates in the arbitration or not.

8.4 OTHER LEGAL PROCEEDINGS

No party to a Contract or alleged Contract nor any other person claiming under any such party, shall bring any action at law against any other such party in respect of any dispute arising out of the Contract or alleged Contract, until such dispute shall have been adjudicated upon in arbitration under these Dispute Resolution Rules or otherwise adjudicated upon as permitted by the Rules; and the obtaining of an award under these Dispute Resolution Rules shall be a condition precedent to a right of either contracting party to bring any such action against the other in respect of any dispute arising out of any Contract.

8.5 FAILURE TO PARTICIPATE

If any Member shall refuse or fail to refer or participate in the reference of any dispute to arbitration in accordance with these Dispute Resolution Rules (whether or not any other party to the dispute is a Member) or shall refuse or fail to comply with any decision or award of the board of arbitration he shall be deemed to have infringed this Rule and be subject to disciplinary proceedings accordingly.

8.6 SUSPENSION

The fact of a Member being suspended or expelled shall not affect the rights of any person to arbitration under these Dispute Resolution Rules in respect of any Contract entered or allegedly entered into by the Member.

8.7 COST OF ARBITRATION

The amount of the arbitration fees shall be fixed by the Singapore International Arbitration Centre, which may include, but are not limited to, any expenses incurred in connection with the arbitration and such additional fees as the board of arbitration may fix in cases where an award is remitted to the board on determination of an appeal to the High Court or an order is made by the High Court concerning the reasons for an award. Arbitration fees (including any such additional fees) and expenses shall be borne by the losing party unless otherwise specially awarded.

8.8 JURISDICTION

For the purpose of all proceedings by arbitration or otherwise any Contract shall be deemed to have been made in Singapore any correspondence in reference to the offer, the acceptance, the place of payment or otherwise notwithstanding, and Singapore shall be regarded as the place of performance. Such disputes shall be settled according to the law of Singapore whatever the domicile, residence, or place of business of the parties to the Contract may be or become.

8.9 SERVICE OF NOTICES

Any notice or other document which is to be served on or delivered to any party in connection with an arbitration under these Dispute Resolution Rules may be sent by prepaid post to the usual or last known address or place of business of that party and shall be deemed to have been served or delivered at the time when it would have arrived in the ordinary course of post. Notices may also be served by email, facsimile transmission or any other means of reproducing words in visible form.

The Dispute Resolution Rules governing any dispute referred to arbitration pursuant to Rule 8 shall be those operative at the time of the reference.

or group of countries, (including, without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, a change in respect of duties or taxes) has affected, is affecting or is likely to affect the normal course of business of the Exchange or the Market, the Directors shall have the power (without prejudice to their powers under any other provision of the Rules) to vary the Contract Rules and Administration Procedures in any way they deem necessary or desirable for the preservation of the orderly course of business.

- b. Such variation may be made notwithstanding that it may affect the performance or value of existing Contracts (or such existing Contracts as may be specified by the Directors). Without limiting their powers hereunder, the Directors will use their best endeavours to keep any such variation to the minimum that they consider reasonably necessary to deal with the situation.
- c. The Directors' powers under this Rule shall be exercisable by notice posted on the Market. Any variation made under this provision shall take effect at such time and for such period as the Directors shall prescribe, but (without prejudice to the preceding paragraph) shall not take effect earlier than the posting up of the notice on the Market.

The Relevant Clearing House Rules provide that the Relevant Clearing House is a party as principal to each Contract, whether as Buyer or Seller and that its counterparty is the relevant Clearing Member of the Relevant Clearing House as principal. The Contract Rules and Administration Procedures made under them shall be construed accordingly and, in particular, references to "buyer" and "seller" shall include the Relevant Clearing House unless the context otherwise requires.
- b. The provisions of neither the Convention relating to a Uniform Law on the International Sale of Goods, of 1964, nor the United Nations Convention on Contracts for the International Sale of Goods, of 1980, shall apply to Contracts.

9.15 FURTHER AMENDMENT OF CONTRACT RULES

- a. 9.16 REGULATORY FUNCTIONS

 - iv. where any aspect of the current business on the Market in respect of any Contract is, in light of any other current or anticipated circumstances, at risk of being conducted otherwise than in an orderly manner and/or so as to afford proper protection to participants in the Market and such risk may be addressed by changes to the Contract Rules and/or Administration Procedures.
- b. Such variation may be made notwithstanding that it may affect the performance or value of existing Contracts (or such existing Contracts as may be specified by the Directors). Without limiting their powers hereunder, the Directors will use their reasonable endeavours to keep any such variation to the minimum that they consider reasonably necessary to respond to the circumstances in question.
 - c. The Directors' powers under this Rule shall be exercisable by notice posted on the Market.
